

2003 NDW Ornament Design Contest

This year's theme is:

The Navy's Quarterdeck: Securing Our Freedom at Home and Abroad!

The design that best captures this theme will be used as our 2003 NDW Ornament. The top three finalists will win the following monetary prizes:

1st Prize	$100 U.S. Savings Bond
2nd Prize	$50 U. S. Savings Bond
3rd Prize	$25 U. S. Savings Bond

The contest is open to all federal employees and military personnel stationed at a NDW Facility, i.e., Washington Navy Yard, NDW Anacostia Annex or Nebraska Avenue Complex).

Contestants are not expected or required to submit a finished ornament. Our manufacturer will craft the winning design into a final product available for sale later this year.

Ornaments will be fashioned on metal either on a flat or two-dimensional plane.

Designs may be submitted as color sketches/free-hand drawings, an original computer graphic, or a detailed photograph. In order to limit the cost of the manufacturing, however, a maximum of three (3) colors will be permitted. .

Photograph may be of any size. Various angles of the subject as well as close-up "detail" shots are helpful. The photograph (placed on a "stone," centered in the middle of the ornament). Subject photographs may be of any size but 5" x 7", or larger, are preferred.

An accompanying, written narrative or description of items and/or symbols used in your design would be helpful.

Samples of finished ornaments are provided below for illustration purposes. They represent acceptable designs for this contest.

A complete submission package shall include the following:

- A design sketch, original computer graphic, and/or photograph,
- Proof of employment (demonstrating that your duty station is at a NDW facility), and
- POC information (Name, Command, & Telephone Number).
